Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sharon Anderson has dedicated 40 years of services as an employee with the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, In 1963, Sharon began as a clerk typist in the mail room, and throughout the years has held several different positions, her current one being telecommunications operator; and,

Whereas, Sharon and her husband, Wes, gave life and love to three children, Jeff, Randy, and Dawn, and now have six grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Sharon goes above and beyond the call of duty to do for others, she has sold Avon for 13 years, and collects dolls as a hobby; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding employee for her commitment of service to the state of South Dakota, at her 40th Anniversary celebration of employment on September 8, 2003:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim, September 8, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join her colleagues, friends and family in congratulating Sharon at this milestone in her working career.

SHARON ANDERSON DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Second Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State